Hi Bob

I wanted to see if EPA had a response to this so that we all can make travel arrangements?

Thank you

Hi Bob,

Thank you for your email. I have had a chance to talk through all of this with Hilcorp and here is where we have landed:

Subject: Hilcorp FOV/NOV conference and CAA 114 call

Hello Eric,

The EPA and NMED are available on either April 10 and April 11 from 8-10:45 MDT and 1:00-2:45 MDT. Either Albuquerque or Santa Fe, NM would work as a location for the conference. I checked with NMED and EPA about Hilcorp's request to have a meeting in Washington, DC, or Dallas. Based on responses, it would be best if the conference takes place at NMED's Santa Fe or Albuquerque office. Please let me know which of these dates and locations work for Hilcorp.

On the follow-up CAA 114 information request, the EPA is available to talk on April 4 at 12:00 – 1:00 EDT (10:00 – 11:00 MDT) via a conference call. I acknowledge you requested an in-person meeting at EPA headquarters to talk about the 114, however a technical conference call is typically how we handle requests to discuss CAA 114 letters and we prefer to maintain that practice. It might help make the most productive use of the call if in advance Hilcorp could identify for the EPA specific sections of the CAA 114 letter and let us know what questions Hilcorp has. I leave that to you to decide. You brought up an extension of the timeline for the response, and in that regard Hilcorp should let us know which requests require more time than provided under the current 30-day timeline and we can go from there. Lastly a word on attendees. The EPA will have technical staff on the call, including Daniel Hoyt, and also I am planning on joining, primarily in a listening mode. I want to extend an invitation to NMED to join as well. If there are discussion Hilcorp would like to have about oil and gas operations in locations outside NM, let me know and we can plan on a having that part of the discussion separately.
